

PRESTON GIBSONS FINALLY FREED BY PARIS COURT

Playwright's Wife Gets Full Decree From Thrice Mar- ried Second Husband.

Copyright, 1922 (New York Evening World), by Press Publishing Company.
PARIS, June 1.—Mrs. Preston Gibson obtained a final decree of divorce from her playwright husband ten days ago, according to reliable information just made public. It is understood that desertion and non-support were alleged and there was no defense.

Both Gibson and his former wife are in Paris, but neither will discuss the case, nor will Dudley Field Malone, Mrs. Gibson's counsel. However, Gibson has six weeks in which to demand revision of the judgment if he wishes.

According to the information obtainable Mrs. Gibson established a legal residence in France two years ago and instituted proceedings against her husband about six months ago.
At the time there were rumors of her action, but these were denied. Gibson went to Europe two weeks ago and it was reported he was seeking a reconciliation.

Gibson had been wed twice before when he was married to Mrs. Alexander, Dallas Bache Pratt in 1919.
She had been Miss Beatrice M. Benjamin and had divorced her first husband. Her second marriage was disapproved of by her parents, who reduced her allowance, but about a year ago Mrs. Gibson became reconciled to them.

ARTIST SZUKALSKI WEDS IN CHICAGO

New York Painter-Sculptor Takes Miss Helen Walker for a Bride.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Stanislaus Szukalski's pet slogan, "Work Alone," has gone by the board.

Also there will be no more going hungry alone, as the poor young sculptor-painter is said to have done many times. Stanislaus, carefully laying away his artistically wrinkled clothes for a new suit of blue serge, stood up before a minister yesterday and got married.

Miss Helen Louise Walker, daughter of a wealthy Chicagoan and a former pupil of Szukalski, stood next to him. It was all over in a little while and the walls of the top floor of No. 428 Lafayette Street, New York, are to be graced with the works of Mrs. Stanislaus Szukalski.

When the Rev. James S. Stone had played his part in the drama, Mrs.
Szukalski received the paternal blessing, and then, because Stanislaus "de-tests civilization," they hurried away for a month in the Canadian woods before going back to New York, art and the Village.

The NAMM IDEA—To Buy for Cash, to Sell for Cash, Big Sales, Small Profits

"A Word To The Wives Is Sufficient!"

especially during this month, when approximately 2,500 Brooklyn girls will become June Brides.
In Eastern countries, wives are regarded as chattels and slaves. But in this country they are honored above men, and serve as keepers of the home.
The American housewife controls the purse strings of the nation—therefore it behooves her to practice economy and thrift.
For forty-six years the NAMM STORE has been Brooklyn's economy center because of its policy of Big Sales, small profits, cash buying and selling.
